

Tuesday 16th April
0900 – 0930 Registration McMordie Hall, Music Building Tea/coffee available
0930 - 1030 Session 1: Plenary Harty Room, Music Building  Daithí Mac Síthigh (Queen's University Belfast): Welcome  Eliza Easton, Head of Policy Unit, Creative Industries Policy and Evidence Centre (PEC), Principal Policy Researcher, Nesta. (introduced by Ronan Deazley (Queen's University Belfast))
1030 – 1100 Coffee break: McMordie Hall, Music Building
1100 – 1230 Parallel sessions 2A, 2B, 2C, 2D – all in School of Law (Main Site Tower)
2A: AI, Automation, and Algorithms (chair: Judith Rauhofer, BILETA Executive) Room 0G.009 (ground floor)
Arno Lodder	Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam	A first step towards regulating algorithms: on actors, subjects and impact
John Morison	Queen's University Belfast	Monitoring Populations: Algorithmic governmentality, rights and the problem of resistance
Judith Vermeulen	Ghent University	Permissibility of algorithmic news selection and personalisation in view of the right to freedom of thought
2B: Regulation (Social Media) (chair: Abbe Brown, BILETA Executive) Stephen Livingstone Room (2 nd floor)
Subhajt Basu	University of Leeds	"WhatsApp Killings" and India's "Post-truth" Politics
Eduardo Celeste	University College Dublin	To be or not to be 'social': social media exclusion and national courts
Emily Laidlaw	University of Calgary	Tackling the life cycle of a privacy claim: a legal conceptual model to address online abuse
2C: Intellectual Property (chair: Catherine Easton, BILETA Executive) Edgar Graham Room (2 nd floor)
Bukola Faturoti	Robert Gordon University	Live Streaming and User-Generated Content: A Nigerian Perspective on Making Available Right
Rachel Maguire	Queen Mary, University of London	When it doesn't belong to the internet: regulating uses of creative works shared online
Nick Scharf	University of East Anglia	Digital Rights Management: The Dark Side of Streaming
2D: Data Protection (chair: Edina Harbinja, BILETA Executive) Moot Court Room (2 nd floor)
Sweta Lakhani Indranath Gupta	O.P. Jindal Global University	Data Privacy Laws: EU GDPR, Indian Laws and Aadhaar System
Mark Leiser Francien Dechesne	Leiden University	Models are not personal data
Karen Mc Cullagh	University of East Anglia	Assessing the adequacy of UK data protection law
1230 – 1330 Lunch : Great Hall
1330 – 1500 Parallel sessions 3A, 3B, 3C, 3D – all in School of Law (Main Site Tower)
3A: AI, Automation, and Algorithms (chair: Mark Hanna, QUB) Room 0G.009 (ground floor)
Joanna Bac		Sentient Artificial Intelligence (AI) Recognized as a Colonius Person and the Birth of a New Global Power
Dominika Galajdová	Masaryk University	Digital cloning: new perspective of self-representation and its legal implications
Petros Terzis	University of Winchester	The reasonable coder
3B: Regulation (chair: Gavin Sutter, BILETA Executive) Stephen Livingstone Room (2 nd floor)
Jennifer Cobbe	University of Cambridge	Regulating Recommender Systems: Motivations and Considerations
Johanna Hoekstra	University of Greenwich	The Digital Single Market Strategy and the Harmonisation of Consumer Contract Law
David Poyton	Prifysgol Aberystwyth / Aberystwyth University	Regulating the sharing economy – addressing the externalities.

3C: Intellectual Property (chair: James Griffin, BILETA Executive) Edgar Graham Room (2nd floor)
Megan Rae Blakely	Lancaster University	Visually Mapping Intellectual Property and Human Rights
Abbe Brown	University of Aberdeen	Law below and beyond frontiers: marine genetic diversity, IP and information
Felipe Romero Moreno	University of Hertfordshire	'Upload filters' and human rights: when general monitoring obligations become a 'specific duty of care'
3D: Data Protection (chair: Marek Martyniszyn, QUB) Moot Court Room (2nd floor)
Maria Samantha Esposito	Politecnico di Torino	Human rights and technology development in the jurisprudence of data protection authorities
Aysem Diker Vanberg	University of Greenwich	Data portability post GDPR: Does the right to data portability really work for social media platforms?
Wenlong Li	University of Edinburgh	Beyond Individual Access to Personal Data: Making Personal Data Obtained through Making Data Portability Requests Useful for Data Subjects
1500 – 1530
Coffee break: McMordie Hall, Music Building
1530 – 1700
Parallel sessions 4A, 4B, 4C, 4D – all in School of Law (Main Site Tower)
4A: AI, Automation, and Algorithms (chair: Conor McCormick, QUB) Room 0G.009 (ground floor)
Catherine Easton	Lancaster University	Autonomous Vehicles and disabled people: preliminary results from an on-going project
Alessandro Mantelero	Politecnico di Torino	Regulating data processing in the Age of AI
Nynke Vellinga	University of Groningen	No frontiers for automated vehicles? The notion of 'driver' and international road traffic law
4B: Regulation (New Approaches) (chair: Paul Maharg, BILETA Executive) Stephen Livingstone Room (2nd floor)
James Griffin	University of Exeter	The changing nature of digital law
Edina Harbinja Vasileios Karagiannopoulos	Aston University University of Portsmouth	Web 3.0 (4.0) or DWeb – the decentralisation of the internet?
Carl Vander Maelen	Ghent University	The impact of alternative regulatory instruments (ARIs) on globally operating tech companies: fragmentation or harmonisation?
4C: Intellectual Property (chair: Felipe Romero Moreno, BILETA Executive) Edgar Graham Room (2nd floor)
Ruth Flaherty	University of East Anglia	"Culture? Where we're going we don't need culture!" An empirical investigation into the importance of unauthorised derivative works to society in the digital age and how Article 13 undervalues them
Pradeepan Sarma	Vrije Universiteit Brussel	The 'Integrity' of Canada's 'Users' Rights Doctrine'? A Dworkinian Approach
Amy Thomas	University of Glasgow	EULAs in eSports and video game streaming: copyright as a new commercial imperative for game owners
4D: Data Protection (chair: Karen Mc Cullagh, BILETA Executive) Moot Court Room (2nd floor)
Mark Leiser Bart Custers	Leiden University	The Law Enforcement Directive's Consent and Categorization Quagmire
Ingrida Milkaite Eva Lievens	Ghent University	Consent, contract and legitimate interests as grounds for lawful processing of children's personal data in the EU: investigating an unexpected turn of events
Paul Quinn Gianclaudio Malgieri	Vrije Universiteit Brussel	The Concept of Sensitive Data – Still fit for purpose?
1830 (reception) for 1900 (dinner)
BILETA Annual Dinner (Great Hall)

Wednesday 17th April
0900 – 1030
Parallel sessions 5A, 5B, 5C, 5D – all in School of Law (Main Site Tower)
5A: AI, Automation, and Algorithms (chair: Mary Dobbs, QUB) Room 01/004 (1st floor)
Adam Harkens	Queen's University Belfast	Frontiers of decision making: Algorithmic profiling, subjectivity and the legal environment
Marion Oswald	University of Winchester	Back to 'lie detectors' of the past to suggest ways of dealing with a machine learning future
Jan Zibner	Masaryk University	Subjects' Relevance within an AI-included Creative Process
5B: Regulation (chair: Abhilash Nair, BILETA Executive) Stephen Livingstone Room (2 nd floor)
Mark Leiser Alan M. Sears J. Pieter Kalis	Leiden University	Zero-rating in Net Neutrality: when does it "materially reduce consumer choice"?
David Mangan	Maynooth University	Common law meets cyberlaw: Canadian privacy and defamation in comparative context
Mehmet Unver	Anglia Ruskin University	What response to be given to the 'automated society' phenomenon? Discussion over the EU regulations on digital platforms
5C: Copyright (chair: James Griffin, BILETA Executive) Moot Court Room (2 nd floor)
Sweta Lakhani Sanjeev Sahni	O.P. Jindal Global University	Fighting Plagiarism: Intellectual Property Rights Violations in Education in India
Dinusha Mendis	Bournemouth University	Regulating Mass Copyright Licensing in the Blockchain Era: Myth or Reality?
Giulia Priora	Central European University	Are we ready to effectively teach intellectual property law in the age of automated decision-making?
5D: Data Protection (chair: John Morison, QUB) Edgar Graham Room (2 nd floor)
Jiahong Chen Lilian Edwards Derek McAuley Lachlan Urquhart	University of Nottingham Newcastle University University of Nottingham University of Edinburgh	Defence Against Dark Artefacts: Casting Out the Evil in Smart Homes
Katerina Demetzou	Radboud University	Risk to the fundamental right of data protection. Lessons to be learned from the Charter-GDPR relationship.
Maria Murphy	Maynooth University	The protection of privacy and the continued role of human rights: Considering the smart city
1030 – 1100
Coffee break (and traybakes): McMordie Hall, Music Building
1100 – 1200
Session 6: Plenary Harty Room, Music Building
Alison Hook, Hook Tangaza "The best of all possible worlds – The future for legal education" (introduced by Robin Hickey, Head of the School of Law, QUB)
1200 – 1400
Parallel sessions 7A, 7B, 7C, 7D – all in School of Law (Main Site Tower)
7A: Crime (chair: Martin Jones, BILETA Executive) Room 01/004 (1st floor)
Bela Bonita Chatterjee	Lancaster University	Rogue Robots: Criminal liability for robots who rape?
Argyro Chatzinikolaou	Ghent University	Sexual images of and by children: the different degrees of liability of online platforms
Abhilash Nair	Aston University	Criminalising 3D Sexual Representations of Children
Nabilah Ahmad Zubaidi	Prifysgol Aberystwyth / Aberystwyth University	Tackling online child pornography in Malaysia: The challenges to effective enforcement within the 'identification and blocking' strategy
7B: Regulation (chair: Gavin Sutter, BILETA Executive) Stephen Livingstone Room (2 nd floor)
Kim Barker	University of Stirling	Social Media Platforms as Fiduciaries: A Utopian Regulatory Benchmark?
Paul Bernal	University of East Anglia	Privacy and Fake News
Francesca Pichierri	FIZ Karlsruhe	Online manipulative practices and the danger to democracy: opening a discussion on regulation

7C: Google Prize (chair: Ronan Deazley, QUB) Moot Court Room (2nd floor)
Claire Bevan	Queen's University Belfast	Regulating the use of Big Data: The Challenge for Government Discussant: Judith Rauhofer
MacKenzie F. Common	London School of Economics & Political Science	Fear the Reaper: How Content Moderation Rules are Enforced on Social Media Discussant: Edina Harbinja
Róisín A. Costello	Trinity College Dublin	Conflicts between Individual and Intellectual Property in the Digital Era Discussant: Dinusha Mendis
Israel Cedillo Lazcano	University of Edinburgh	The Electronic Creation Right Discussant: Felipe Romero Monero
7D: Data Protection (chair: Karen Mc Cullagh, BILETA Executive) Edgar Graham Room (2nd floor)
Trix Mulder Reinder Broekstra	University of Groningen	Does the GDPR have trust issues?
Maria Grazia Porcedda David Wall	University of Leeds	The chain and cascade effects of data crime
Matthew Rice	Open Rights Group	Seeking 'quality of law' in the seizure and search of digital devices
Stephanie von Maltzan	Karlsruher Institut für Technologie	Legal aspects of Open Source Intelligence – Predictive Analytics and Data Protection
1400 – 1500 Lunch: Great Hall
1500 – 1630 Parallel sessions 8A, 8B, 8C, 8D – all in School of Law (Main Site Tower)
8A: Crime and Security (chair: John Morison, QUB) Room 01/004 (1st floor)
Lina Jasmontaite	Vrije Universiteit Brussel	Applications for political asylum in EU Member States: Acceptable limitations on data protection principles and privacy in the times of crisis?
Martin Jones	University of the Highlands and Islands	Legislating for Cybersecurity – A Pragmatic Response to Cybercrime?
Sandy Sabapathy Rebecca Ong	Hong Kong Polytechnic University City University of Hong Kong	Cyber-security: A Wake-up call for Hong Kong Companies
8B: Legal Education (chair: Catherine Easton, BILETA Executive) Moot Court Room (2nd floor)
Fernando Barrio	Queen Mary University of London	Legal issues with holographic presential distance teaching
Claire Howell	Aston University	Multidisciplinary pairing: a win- win situation
Paul Maharg Frances Murray	Osgoode Hall Law School	'Dynamic conservatism': second modernity and the digital revolution in legal education
8C: Intellectual Property (chair: Paulina Wilson, QUB) Stephen Livingstone Room (2nd floor)
Hayleigh Boshier	Brunel University London	The Human Element in Online Copyright Infringement
Jade Kouletakis	Abertay University	No man is an island: A critical analysis of the UK's implementation of the Marrakesh Treaty
8D: Privacy – and beyond (chair: Abbe Brown, BILETA Executive) Edgar Graham Room (2nd floor)
Simisola Akintoye	De Montfort University	Cats Against Regulation: Algorithms and Data Protection in the Human Brain Project.
Edina Harbinja Henry Pearce	Aston University University of Portsmouth	Posthumous medical data donation and privacy – a comparative outlook
Judith Rauhofer	University of Edinburgh	Inverse Privacy Harms: The Power of Detriment